FOREWORD

The attached lists of Reports (R), Technical Memoranda (T), Staff Papers (SP), and Technical Papers (TP) were extracted from the 15 March 1966 RAC Publications List. The three attached lists include all published documents of the Research Analysis Corporation and its predecessor, The Operations Research Office (ORO), released prior to 15 March 1966 involving three related fields of military endeavor: Civil Affairs, including Civic Action; Psychological Warfare, now more often described as Psychological Operations; and Counterinsurgency, sometimes described as Unconventional Warfare.

Requests for copies of these publications should not be addressed to RAC but rather to:

The Director
Defense Documentation Center
Cameron Station
Alexandria, Va. 22314

Military and other Government Agencies may address requests for RAC publications directly to the Defense Documentation Center. Contractors and other nongovernment agencies should submit a letter and DDC Form 1 through the appropriate military contracting officer for certification of the need-to-know and facility clearance. Most documents on the attached lists have a DDC or a CFSTI (Commerce Clearinghouse for Federal Scientific and Technical Information) number. In requesting such documents this number should be cited along with the document designation, e.g. T-188 with the unclassified title, and if the requested document is a publication of a field office, the appropriate initials should be added to further identify the document, e.g., SP-3 (SEA). One should not request publications by Study Number alone.

Requests for documents that do not have an assigned AD or ATI number may be sent to RAC through the appropriate study sponsor. RAC does not furnish copies of its publications without the specific approval of its sponsors. All studies on the attached lists except those described as sponsored by ARPA (Advanced Research Project Agency) were sponsored by an agency of the Department of the Army. Distribution of Army-sponsored studies is coordinated through

Chief, HF & OR Division
